

Professor McNeese for Me

Meet Professor Marvin McNeese. Jr.

BACKGROUND

Marvin McNeese calls Houston's Third Ward home.

A Houston resident for more than 25 years.

A husband and father of four

Chair for the General Education Department at College of Biblical Studies – Houston

Professor of political science for more than 15 years at the College of Biblical Studies – Houston

McNeese Stands for:

- Restore Faith in City Hall
- Improve City Services
- Efficiently use ReBuild Houston Funding for Equitable Drainage Solutions accross Houston
- Decrease Crime
- Work Together with the Houston Fire Department on Prop B Solution
- Work with Local Leaders to Grow our Local Economy

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, Albion College, Michigan

Master of Arts in Latin American Studies, The University of Texas in Austin

Master of Public Affairs from the LBJ School of Public Affairs, The University of Texas in Austin

Ph.D. in Political Science, Rice University

Served with Avant Ministries in Panama and six other Latin America countries for two years

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Deacon at Houston's First Baptist Church

Member of Houston's First Baptist Church for more than 25 years

Volunteer Coach at Texans and Trotter YMCAs

University Village Civic Club

Third Ward Complete Community

Emancipation Economic Development Council

Regular Donor at Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center

"I am a community servant who wants to represent Houstonians, advocating for equality and justice across our great city. My commitment is to the community, not to special interest groups or bureaucratic offices." – Professor Marvin McNeese Jr.